

Site Map

A sitemap is a hierarchical diagram that represents the structure and organization of a website — showing all the pages, how they relate to each other, and how a user navigates between them.

